What's New @ CARON®	What's New @ naturally caron.com

Through their efforts, we were able to donate over 10,000 sections to Warm Up America to be joined into full-size afghans!	Whether you knit or crochet, we think you'll enjoy the "stitch advantage" that both NaturallyCaron.com yarns—Country and Spa—give you. Because of their unique multi-ply and cabled constructions, you'll find that both yarns make special stitches pop. Take, for example, one of this week's new projects, Botanico. Perfect for summer wear, at work or at play, Botanico features an easy "dewdrop" stitch that's easy to knit and gives great results in Spa, our summer-weight bamboo blend. >Check out our online audio fashion show for Botanico >Click to free instructions for Botanico >View all colors for Spa Now consider the texture and fun you can create with our whimsical Belize Wrap. Crocheted in Country, our merino wool blend, we've shown it in two different colorways, giving you lots of options. Country's cabled construction means that the easy circular pattern holds its shape, yet drapes beautifully. Play with the color combinations and have some fun, creating a one-of-a-kind summer shawl or a striking winter scarf. >Check out our online audio fashion show for the Belize Wrap >Click to free instructions for the Belize Wrap >View all colors for Country Cari's Blog: The NaturallyCaron.com Notebook Have you checked out Cari's blog yet? Written each week by Cari Clement, our uber-talented Director of Fashion and Design, the blog features behind-the-scenes scoop on where Cari finds inspiration for the designs you'll see featured on NaturallyCaron.com, notes about the yarn itself and commentary from some of your favorite designers. Check it out now to read about the unusual z-twist construction of NaturallyCaron.com yarns. >Read Cari's blog now >Subscribe to the RSS feed
